WELCOME TO THE CARNIVAL!
CHILDREN'S ART AUCTION
THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 2ND, 2012
6:30-8PM
GREENBROOK MPR

What is the Children's Art Auction (CAA)?

It is a fundraising event geared toward families who wish to participate in the auction fundraising process in a family-focused event. This year's event is Welcome to the Carnival! Children's Art Auction, Thursday, February 2nd, 6:30-8pm, Greenbrook MPR.

This is the 4th year of the CAA and we would like to thank all of the volunteers and families for their past support of CAA. Last year the event raised over $18,000 (after accounting for expenses). All proceeds from CAA go to the EAGLE Fund and are used to pay for important programs and resources at Greenbrook that benefit each and every student.

How much does it cost? Who is it for?

It is FREE and the whole family is invited to come. There will be activities for the kids and food available for purchase.

What is available at the Children's Art Auction?

Classroom Creations are a large part of the Silent Auction at the CAA. Each classroom is asked to create a project for the auction. The projects will mainly be "individual" art pieces where a creation is made by each child to be purchased by the parent. We use this approach because each family will have the opportunity to enjoy a special treasure created by their child. Some classrooms will create one big piece of art and the project will go to the highest bidder. A few classrooms may decide to create projects that will ultimately be donated to the teacher or classroom.

Tile Collage

You can sign your child up for $40 and they will have the opportunity to leave their mark on Greenbrook by painting a tile that will be part of a permanent artwork collage.

Disney Raffle

Our popular Disney Raffle will be available again this year. Each raffle ticket is $10 (cash) and will be on sale during CAA. The winner of 4 Disney Hopper tickets will be announced at approximately 7:15pm.

Other Auction Items

Other family oriented and kid oriented auction items will be available during the silent auction portion. Examples are various themed gift baskets, sign up spots for an afterschool party/craft class, and birthday party packages.

Will there be more specific information about the auction items available ahead of time?

Yes, you will be able to preview the items and a catalog will be sent home with your student before the event. Your catalog will have a bid number on it and you can just use that number to bid on items and then simply check out (with cash, check or credit card) before you leave.

Will there be food there?

Yes, this year, there will be a Carnival themed Hot Dog Cart with hot dogs, sausages, pulled pork sandwiches, meatball sandwiches along with drinks and chips. They will give 30% back of what they sell back to Greenbrook.

Please contact Helga Glasson at glasson@sbcglobal.net if you have additional questions.

Thank you for your support. See you at the Carnival!
